

City of Boston IN CITY COUNCIL

RESOLUTION OF CITY COUNCIL PRESIDENT MICHAEL P. ROSS

- WHEREAS: Karin Mathiesen began interning in Councilor Ross' office in the summer of 2005 while she was a student at Wellesley College. She was asked to work in the office in 2007 as the Director of Constituent Relations for the Back Bay, Beacon Hill and the West End. Since then, she has left a lasting impression on every person she meets, whether it is a constituent in need or a new intern in the office; and
- WHEREAS: She is known for her kindness and concern for others is genuine, however, she does not allow others to take advantage of her good nature. She's willing to stand up for anyone—her colleagues, her boss, her constituents—in no uncertain terms. It is this unique mix that made her a great constituent relations director, and will make her a great lawyer; and
- WHEREAS: The office is proud to have gotten to know her. The mere act of being cheerful in the face in the midst of so much commotion is completely disarming and relaxing. She has taught this office to approach everyone with an open mind and an open heart, and she has made the office better for that lesson; and
- WHEREAS: All those who have come in contact with her throughout her tenure are better for having met her and will not soon forget the lasting impact she has made; Now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Boston City Council congratulate Karin Mathiesen on her successful career, her future work at NOVA Southeastern University, and declare July 23, 2009 to be "Karin Mathiesen Day," and encourage all Bostonians to join in on the celebration.

By:
President of the City Council

Attest:
Clerk of the City of Boston

Offered by:
Date: 7-23-09